

JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Monday - 26 November 1962

25X1 1. [redacted] Saw Porter Hardy to discuss with 25X1 him the [redacted] case and seek his views on format of the early retirement 25X1 legislation.

[redacted]

25X1 3. [redacted] OCR Liaison, advised he had received a call from Mr. Parsons, Senate Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee staff, requesting identification of [redacted] who was 25X1 identified by Senator Strom Thurmond during the "muzzling of the military" last year as a pacifist living in Switzerland and by the former General Walker as a Communist living in Havana. Mr. Parsons was advised that probably we would be unable to identify him further from the information provided.

25X1 4. [redacted] Received a call from John Leahy,
State Department Congressional Liaison, requesting that they be advised of the results of our contact with Representative Porter Hardy. They feel they are still on the hook and will need to touch base with the Congressman again after our visit.

25X1 5. [redacted] Attempted to reach William Saltonstall in Boston to advise him of the GEHA payment in the case of [redacted] but Saltonstall was not available. We shall attempt to reach him tomorrow when he is scheduled to return to Washington.

CONFIDENTIAL

25X1

Approved For Release 2004/03/15 : CIA-RDP64B00346R000200220024-4

Next 1 Page(s) In Document Exempt

Approved For Release 2004/03/15 : CIA-RDP64B00346R000200220024-4